

IRS audits are scary. You need an ally.

In the event of an IRS audit, you will need to:

1 Respond to the IRS within 30 days of your notification.

2 Communicate with the IRS directly and figure out what documentation and specific formats they need.

3 Work with the auditor to explain why your documentation supports your return claims.

4 Follow up with additional documents, letters, or phone calls to provide missing information.

5 Be mistake free. A single mistake could result in you being immediately denied by the IRS.

6 Pay possibly hundreds of dollars for someone else to do this for you.

or

You can enroll in Audit Allies and let us handle it all for you.

An IRS audit can be an extremely frustrating, time-consuming, and expensive experience. Audit Allies will have your back and get your money from the IRS.
